

Table. PA-PSRS Reports of Anoxic Encephalopathy, June 2004 to June 2007 (continued)

DESCRIPTION OF PROBLEM	DIED	NEONATE	CHILD	DELIVERY	EMERGENCY DEPARTMENT (ED)	INTENSIVE CARE UNIT (ICU)	MEDICAL-SURGICAL UNIT	OPERATING ROOM (OR)	RADIOLOGY	TRANSFER	RESPIRATORY SUPPORT	AIRWAY MANAGEMENT	TRACHEOSTOMY	ESOPHAGEAL INTUBATION	OR INTUBATION	OR EXTUBATION	FOLLOWING PROCEDURE	IMMEDIATELY AFTER DISCHARGE	SEDATION	PROPOFOL SYNDROME	BLEEDING	STATUS EPILEPTICUS	UNWITNESSED
Hemorrhage intraoperatively; arrest on emergence from anesthesia	1		1					1								1					1
Airway problem during bedside tracheostomy						1						1	1
Arrest during intubation for respiratory distress						1						1
Pre-existing unresponsiveness from overdose, plus aspiration on intubation												1
Unwitnessed arrest on floor following transfer from ED for respiratory infection	1				1		1			1												1
Arrest in transport to ICU for respiratory problems	1									1
Unwitnessed arrest on medical-surgical unit							1															1
Unwitnessed arrest in ED	1				1																		1
Became unresponsive						1
Arrest during OR intubation								1				1
Arrest on induction of anesthesia	1		1					1				1
Arrest at home immediately post PTCA	1																1	1
Distress at birth		1
Difficult reintubation
TOTALS	17	4	2	3	2	8	7	4	1	3	2	8	1	1	2	2	3	2	3	1	3	1	5